QUAYS LATEST BLUFF.

He and Mahone Decide to Try in the Courte

Terretain's Electors.

Terretain to the world. To the world.

Washington, Nor. El.—Chairman Quiy has resided upon a move in the nature of a bolt bind, intended, he doubt to induce the Congressional districts pat in doubt rather than to secure the end districts pat in doubt rather than to secure the end districts pat in doubt rather than to secure the end intended in the secure the end intended in the secure the end in the secure to be made by two of the defented Republican electors in Virginia against two Democratic electors holding certificates of election, one of the cases to be brought in a State court at Richmond and the other in the Federal Circuit Court sitting in that city. The movement agreed on a that as soon as the State Board of Canvaners, which meets next Monday in Richmond, shall dewhich meets next Monday in Richmond, shall de-clare the election of the Democratic electors, two tican electors shall file complaints setting orth the fraudulent means by which the election of their contestees was brought about.

When Chairman Quay became convinced, through statements of Ges. Mahone, that the Republicans had carried Virginia on an honest count, he cantiously sent Cel. Parsons, of Natural Bridge, Ve., to make a personal inspection of the charges and report to neadquarters in New York. On receiving Parsons's report confirmatory of Mahone's chatements, Mr. Quay came to this city. Here he was met by Mahone and a conference ensued, with Gens. Butter and Handerson as local advisors. Gens. Butter and Henderson as legal advisers.

Quay and Mahone both declare, with their hands over their hearts, that they do not desire to obtain any "mere party advantage." They are working for the "purity of the beliot." It is hardly necesiry to say that these distinguished gentlemen will lows Settlers of Twenty Years Evicted Like the Irish Pensautry.

SHOUR CRIT, In., Nov. 22.—Four evictions of Des Moines River land settlers were made near Homer last night and to-day. The United States Marahai's force began the service of 100 write against settlers on Spell Burrougu's lands, and about a dozen were served. The goods of farmers who had lived on their farms for twenty years were removed to the highways, and bouses they had built and paid for were nailed up, tenantiess and deserted. These sturdy pioneers have all along desiated that they would resist with their lives these so is that are rivalled only by the ornel evictions of the Irish peasantry, but to-day the force of sity armied deputtes oversawed them. They are without shelter for their families or means wherewith to procure the same. No bloodshed occurred, but there are loud murnurings, and it is not thought possible that the work will be completed without an armed uprising.

Thus far forty-two families have been evicted, and the fliver Land Company declares its intention to clean out the entire trace of 20,000 acres in Wessier, Hamilton and Bouse counties. Within the past few weeks several settlers have effected a settlement by paying to the company the price per carré demanaced for the lands they occupy. Many are unable to de this and must suffer, as cash payments only can save their homes to them. red to the highways, and bouses they had

THE MERCHANTS ACCUSE MR. BROWN.

He Is the Woollen Appraisor in the Custon House and le in a Hone of Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Assistant Appraises Edgar A. Brown, of the New York Custom-House, charge of the division of wool and wooller sods, was accused to-day by a number of leading goods, was accused to-day by a number of leading woollen importers of New York of making unlaw-ful discriminations against them.

A delegation composed of Measts. Daniel Mc-Reever, E. Werner, P. B. Worrall, Jerome Bernheimer, John Irish, H. Witteman, G. H. Dunham and Troomas Stewart waited upon Assistant Secretary Mayand at the Treasury Department 10-day and lodged charses and specifications, in writing, against the Appraisor's department generally, but especially against the division of which Mr. Brown is coled. There is no doubt that the delegation convinced Jadge Maynard that the cano was a pretty serious one.

The complaint, he says, is not an entirely new one, but the new phases of the case give it a much more serious aspect. Judge Maynard will give the matter his immediate attention, and if he does not go himself he will probably send a commission of experts to investigate.
